OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL
OF POLICE IN MYSORE,

Bangalore, 3rd. April 1905.

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

B. K. Venkatavaradaiengar Esquire,
THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE,
GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I have the honor to call attention to the present somewhat circuitous route by which communications from the Criminal Intelligence Department reach this office. They have to pass through both the Resident's office, and the Dewan's private office, and sometimes through the Government Secretariat.

2. I would suggest that except in cases where the communications are of political importance, the Criminal Intelligence Department should address this office direct, copies of replies from this office being sent to the Dewan's office for information and communication to the Honorable the Resident, when necessary.

3. If this system is followed much circumlocution and delay will be avoided, and the Government and the Honorable the Resident, will be kept informed of what is being done by this Department in tracing and shadowing suspicious foreigners.

4. I therefore request that you will kindly move the

Government

Government to sanction this proposa
